

Request a Research Guide

If you would like to request a research guide for a particular subject or course, please complete the following form and email to hicksm@pine.edu . The librarian will work with you to meet your specifications, so some consult time (face-to-face, phone, or email) will be necessary. Please allow ample time for design and creation of your requested guide.

Your Information
Name*
Email*
Phone*
Preferred method of communication*

Research Guide Specifications
Date you hope to have this research guide online (allow at least 2 weeks)*
Type of research guide you'd like created (circle one)* SUBJECT (includes broad topics and sub-topics; e.g. art, art history, nursing, young adult literature, etc.) COURSE (specific to one course/instructor; e.g. COMM 1100, GEOG 1123, PHIL 1125, etc.)
Title for your research guide:

(More on back)

Research Guide Details

Instructions.

The librarian will work with you to discover appropriate resources for this guide, however, if there are resources you already know you'd like to include, please list them below in the appropriate boxes. Please remember to list only items that are freely available (websites, open-access databases, items PTCC already owns or has access to, etc.). It is okay to leave boxes blank.

Books (title, author, ISBN):

Journals (title/association, etc.):

Videos (title):

Associations, Organizations (name and URL):

Websites (name, sponsor of this website—usually found in the “about us” section, URL):